©1990 Stephen Savitzky. Some Rights Reserved¹.

For Colleen, with all my love

Asus2 ADFifty years together doesn't seem so long: D Esus4 Esus4 Days of rain and roses; laughter, love, and song; D Dsus2 G Em Mystery and moonlight; mornings when I rise D Esus4 Asus2 And see myself reflected with the sunrise in her eyes. A Asus4

G* D D Dsus2 Eyes like the morning, smile like the sun, Dsus2 D Em Voice like the forest glades where rippling waters run; Dsus2D G Em Love soft as starlight, deeper than the sea, Asus2 Asus4 A Asus2 A D Em Asus2 Dsus2 D When eyes like the morning look at me.

 $Instrumental \ bridge - verse + chorus$

Asus2 A D А Α Listen! the stars are calling, with a wild and distant sound, $\operatorname{Esus4}$ Esus4 D And there's no way to answer when you're stuck down on the ground, Dsus2 Em D G But I see our children gazing at the deep and starry skies, Asus2Esus4 D Looking past the darkness, with tomorrow in their eyes. A Asus4

G* Dsus2 D Eyes like the morning, smile like the sun, D Dsus2 Em G Voice like the forest glades where rippling waters run; Dsus2D G Em Love soft as starlight, deeper than the sea, Asus2Asus4 A Asus2 A D Em Asus2 Dsus2 D When eyes like the morning look at me.

NOTE: $G^* = D$ 5 frets up, play high 4 strings only.

A Valentine's Day present for my wife, written when we only had one child and their eyes weren't as green as they are now.