

Close Your Eyes

©2002 Daniel Glasser.

G C D
 Close your eyes and sleep
 G D
 There are demons in your dreams
 G C D
 Go to sleep my darling
 G C D
 there's a demon underneath your bed
 G C D
 Demons in your bed
 G
 are going to eat you up
 G C D
 Stay in your bed
 G C D
 There are landmines on the floor.
 G C D
 The demons in your bed
 G
 are going to eat you up
 G C D
 Sugar and spice and everything nice
 G C D
 Why do you think we say that?
 G C D
 So the demons in your bed
 G
 will want to eat you up
 \begin{refrain}
 Em D C
 You used to have a sister
 Em D C
 She wouldn't go to sleep
 G C D
 The demons in her bed
 G
 Ate her up
 \end{refrain}

G C D
 Do not call for your mother;
 G C D
 Who is it you think who let the demons in G
 to eat you up?
 G C D
 Snips and Snails and Puppydog tails;
 pause
 G C D
 Who can account for the tastes of demons?
 G C D
 Demons in your bed
 G
 are going to eat you up
 G C D
 Baby don't you cry
 G C D
 or the demons won't wait until you've gone to sle
 G
 before they eat you up
 G C D
 That is not a blanket...
 pause
 G C D
 The demons in your bed
 G
 are going to eat you up
 \begin{refrain}
 Em D C
 My father sang this song to me
 Em D C
 But he slipped and fell on a landmine
 G C D
 And the Demons underneath my bed
 G
 Ate him up
 \end{refrain}