

Little Home Computer

Lyrics ©1985 Stephen Savitzky. Some Rights Reserved¹.

To the tune of “The Holly and the Ivy” (traditional)

refrain

G C G
My little home computer
C G
Is wonderful to see
C G D G C G
With the spinning of its little floppy disk
D7 G C G D7 G
And the glowing C R T.

I got a home computer
'Twas on a Christmas day.
At first I didn't like it
But I guess it's here to stay.

The instructions for my computer
Are written, if you please,
In a mixture of Middle English
And pidgin Japanese.

refrain

My computer can play music,
It warbles like a bird
That's got drunken on fermented berries—
Wierdest thing you ever heard.

My computer it draws pictures
On its little TV screen.
Most expensive box of fingerpaints
Anyone has ever seen.

refrain

Oh to use a home computer
Is as easy as can be;
Any ten-year-old can get it right.
Wonder what is wrong with me.

I can't program my computer
It does only what I say.
I only wish that I could write a program
That would make it go away.

refrain
