C         G C       G      F
Oh give me a home page where web browsers roam
C    F   C            G   C   G
And the spiders and search engines play
C              G C      G  F
Where my words can be seen upon everyone's screen
          C          G   C G   C
And I'll be the Cool Site of the Day.

   C          F   C   G   C      F         C
   Oh I wanna be a webmaster, I wanna use HTTP
      F*                    G    C      F    C G C  G
   In the World Wide Web there'll be no one as wonderful as me
      C*            F    C   G C  F   C
   My page will be the Cool Site of the day you just can bet
         F     C  G   C   G   C
   At WWW-dot-my-dot-site-dot-net

      C          G  C      F          C
Well, I found a site provider and I wrote HTML
   C              C*            F          G
And I made a thousand links to sites that I can't even spell.
      C     F   C      F   C    G    C
With a CGI hit counter that has four whole lines of code,
      C            F              F  G  C    G C
And a three-D rendered background that takes half an hour to load.

   refrain — the week

Well I bought myself a Macintosh and Windows 95

Page Mill and Netscape Server and a 4.2-Gig drive;

My programs all have objects and my processors have RISCs

And my software's backed up on about five hundred floppy disks.

   refrain — the month

Now I have a Cisco router and a satellite link dish

And a realtime Ricoh camera taking pictures of my fish

And an RC autogyro I'll be taking for a whirl

Just as soon as I can figure out how to program it in PERL.

   refrain — the year

I'll be raking in the Digicash and Cyberbucks galore

When a World Wide Web of customers comes browsing to my door

I'll sell them cups of Java and instant iced N-T

In recycled plastic mugs that have a photograph of me.

   refrain — all time

Oh give me a home where the web browsers roam

I'll be staking my cyberspace claim

To a place in the sun for fast money and fun

And my own 15 minutes of fame.
